Marcel Dzama

Girl Skateboards is proud to present Marcel Drama

Known for working in a wide range of media, Marcel creates collages, dioramas, and large-scale polyptychs that depict fanciful, anachronistic worlds full of humans, animals, and hybrid creatures. His work, which looks like something you might stumble upon in an antique shop, has not only been published in McSweeney's, the bible of Dave Egger's generation of writers, but it has also appeared on the album covers of "The Else" by They Might Be Giants and "Guero" by Beck, as well as in the music videos for songs by Bob Dylan and the Department of Eagles. And now a set of seven skateboard graphics for Girl.
